Your manuscript has now been reviewed by experts in the field. Please find your manuscript with the referee reports at this link:

<https://susy.mdpi.com/user/manuscripts/resubmit/120b8da29681e7729626e8208a43d7c0>

Please revise the manuscript according to the referees' comments and upload the revised file within 10 days.

There are three reviewers for your paper and maybe only one report left. To save your time, we decide to send the two reports to you first for any necessary revisions. If we receive the third report, we will send it to you as soon as possible. If we do not receive it, there will be only three reports you see.

Please use the version of your manuscript found at the above link for your revisions.

(I) Please check that all references are relevant to the contents of the manuscript.

(II) Any revisions to the manuscript should be marked up using the "Track Changes" function if you are using MS Word/LaTeX, such that any changes can be easily viewed by the editors and reviewers.

(III) Please provide a cover letter to explain, point by point, the details of the revisions to the manuscript and your responses to the referees' comments.

(IV) If you found it impossible to address certain comments in the review reports, please include an explanation in your rebuttal.

(V) The revised version will be sent to the editors and reviewers.

If one of the referees has suggested that your manuscript should undergo extensive English revisions, please address this issue during revision. We propose that you use one of the editing services listed at <https://www.mdpi.com/authors/english> or have your manuscript checked by a native English-speaking colleague.

Do not hesitate to contact us if you have any questions regarding the revision of your manuscript. We look forward to hearing from you soon.

Dear Mrs. Syamsudin,

We invite you to proofread your manuscript to ensure that this is the final version that can be published and confirm that you will require no further changes:

At MDPI, we believe in the fast dissemination of sound, valid scientific knowledge. Once accepted for publication, we aim to ensure that research is published as soon as possible.

Please upload the final proofed version of your manuscript within 24 hours, and please remember that we are able to be flexible with this timeframe should you alert us. If you need more time, please inform the Assistant Editor of the expected date that you will be able to return the proofread version.

Please read the following instructions carefully before proofreading:

- 1) Download the manuscript from the link provided at the end of this message and upload the final proofed version via the second link. If you experience any difficulties, please contact the Electronics Editorial Office.
- 2) Please use Microsoft Word's built-in track changes function to highlight any changes you make, or send a comprehensive list of changes in a separate document. Note that this is the *last chance* to make textual changes to the manuscript. Some style and formatting changes may have been made by the production team, please do not revert these changes.
- 3) All authors must agree to the final version. Check carefully that authors' names and affiliations are correct, and that funding sources are correctly acknowledged. Incorrect author names or affiliations are picked up by indexing databases, such as the Web of Science or PubMed, and can be difficult to correct.

After proofreading, final production will be carried out. Note that changes to the position of figures and tables may occur during the final steps. Changes can be made to a paper published online only at the discretion of the Editorial Office.

Please confirm whether you would like to use the Open Review option already selected, where the review reports and authors' responses are published alongside your paper. Reviewers can also choose to identify themselves along with the published paper. We encourage authors to take advantage of this option as proof of the rigorous peer review process used to publish your research. Please confirm again that you approve the use of Open Review for your paper via the uploading page.
